The Retease of Jellerson Davis.

From the N. Y. Tribene.

Jefferson Davis has been released, and it will suggest comment upon the past action of the forerminent that his release has been effected without the slightest trouble. Between the miliary and the civil authorities there was no confact, no hesitation on the put of the Gourt landinting him to full, and no alikently in obtaining, even from ble extreme opponents, the mount of bull required. All that was necessary was the production of the prisonal in a Civil Court of the United States. The test followed as a matter of course. Thus evely has been solved one of the most exactions questions which the blunders of the Government have talent tise or try from We amained that year ago, and that we were right was proved years deep them, after the order considered the entire should be considered by the Court. He is now at therety to go where he deases, and not at the fourth alone, but equity the North, his libration will be infled as a lettery of common sense.

From the New York TI-rath. Ginac, the increased is demand in parson two years awithin, as an old problem to monderer, a tention of a rule. The law's delay, through the trains of a rule, the law's delay, through the Caled Jassice, is it as becoming a public second it, when Devis is hought up for tell and rebused on first in the twelfy sum (one hundred thous and doltars) paid to his contine. This is a cartinus fact; but he has held so encous as the last that there on the list of this bond-men appears. House, terrely (one to Rechmond"), and second, Augustus seems, Proudent of the Democratle VI intuiting Code, of which Thirdow Word is the whise in in laber. Here has Northern rivalry for political capital South, which may lead to still more remarkable multications of brother size.

iv nov. P matters little now whether Davis is trial arxi week, next month, or mixi 5 nm - his telat wir and in smoke. It is not antiscly that it left to the courts his case may be presponed again and again, 110 fluory dropped. In the John drown song it is estit, We will have Joff Division a sour apple tree, As we go marching on,

As we go murching on, and President Johnson ins declared several times that "trosson is a crime and traitors must be punished;" but as matters now stand the beat thing he could do would be to grant a free pardon to Davis and let him go in peace.

pumished; "ut as matter how some the parton to Davis and let hing go in peace.

From to Times

Judge Underwood has not insisted upon hanging Juli, Davis without trial, or even upon remaining Juli, Davis without trial, or even upon remaining him to Lithy to await the ultimate issue of the law's delay. Contrary to many predictions and some fears, he has pursued a decerns and sensible course, and Mr. Davis is now at liberty, having given hall to appear at the November Torm of the Circuit Court. The whole proceeding appears to have heen as quiet and as brief as the arraignment of a pity officider in a Police office. The prisoner was transferred from military to civil custed), the question of bail was raised and disposed of; and the man who lar beca two years in confinement, awaiting trial, presed into the world again with little more than a nominal restraint upon his freedom.

If two years have not sufficed to prepare the case for trial, is it probable that Javis will ever be arraigned? We think not. He is bound over to appear for trial, but beyond the formality of ball, the prevailing impression is that his case is even now ended. The idea of convicting and punishing him is no longer entertained in any quarter; and though a more straightforward method of disposing of him might have better comported with national dignity, perhaps the course pursued is really the only one which circumstances have rendered possible. The linjustice of lengthened imprisonment without trial has indeed been perpetrated, but as a set off it must be remembered that passions which at an earlier puriod might have marred the efforts of mercy are now happily allayed, as the iburation of Davis effectually proves. There may have been tardiness in setting the machinery of jurifice in motion, but thee has certailly been no vindictiveness, and for months past no harshness.

Governor Smyth, of New Hamshire, has been presented with a gold-headed cane by Captains Bonohau and Hynes, who desired to recognise the services of the Governor to suddiers during the war. Captain Bonohan asserts that he owes his life to the Governor's exertions on the battle field of Gettysburg.

TITUSVILLE, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1867. A Palace in Central Park.

The New York World devotes nearly a column to a description of a house which is being built on the verge of Central Park for Mrs. Gaines.—The design is said to be original, the style Franco-Italian, and the material Nova Scotia stone. The ground plan embraces a spacious entrance hall and vestibule, 13 feet wide by 70 feet long; a grand principal staircase, 28 feet by 18 feet, surmounted by a handsome belvidere, reception room, large drawing room, parior, boudoir, and library, en suite, a sine large dialing room, with bay window, conservatory, bourskeepers' room, butter's pantry, back staircase, and all other usual appurtenance. The stable department is ingeniously arranged in one extreme corner, where it contributes to the adversament of the structure while at feeting its comfort. The grand carriage entrance leading to the main attrease is protected by a handsome porte cockere, and there are, besides, two covered carriage ways on each side of the building, for ingress and cyress. The second floor contains well-lighted, commodious chambers and dressing-rooms, with bath-rooms and every other modern appliance of luvury and convenience, a large picture and seatplur galery, a theatre and ball-room, of feet long by 31 feet wide, and a beautiful billiard-room. On this deeply recessed above, dressing-room, bath-rooms and private intile staircase, (leading oxclusively from the bondoir below), is the pretitest arranged suit of private rooms imagnable. The sleeping apartments for servants are stiffully distributed in a mezzanine floor at one angle of the building, and so managed that by the closing of one single door, they can be, at will, entirely cut off from the remainder of the apartments on the second and third floor. The latter is devoted exclusively to the large and handsome chambers, with an abundance of dressing-rooms, closett, bath-rooms, &c. The basement is complete in every portion, and in the culinary and washing departments especially, embraces every conceivable conceined and third floor. The latter is devot New York World devotes nearly a column scription of a house which is being built verge of Central Payk for Mrs. Galnes.—

The Reconstruction Case in the Supreme

From the New York Times, May 14

From the New York Times, May 14

The applications for Impactions in behalf of Georgia and Mississippi, to rest di the openition of the Reconstruction Act, were jesterday dismissed by the Supreme Court, which disclaims jurisdiction in the premises.

This result his been so generally expected that its promulgation is received as a matter of context. Better any action was token, the Inability of the Court to Interfere was treated by all parties at the North as an established fact. If any doubts remained they were probably dispelled by the argument of the Attorney General. The Inverse had already declared the motion inationshib, on grounds which seemed irrefragulate. The Attorney General added to the subtity of the law-lad already declared the motion inadions the, our grounds which seemed irrefregable. The Abtorney General added to the sublicty of the lawyer the strong sense of the statestum, and convinced the popular pattern of the males able to the popular of the popular of the popular of a strong sense of vesting in any Court the power of mellifying the political action of the Government.

The South, already disposed to comply with the terms of the act, will have for last read things and the strong sense of the sense of A PAINT STORE. Colors, Oll, Turpentine, Putty.

A Gigantic Project.

A Gigantic Project.

From the New York Times.

Prominent Pennsytanians are said to be canvassing the project of having the State publish in Prointelephia an enormous newspaper—something on a scale hitterto unlicated of inthe world of journation. It is to be about time times as bare a usum paper may published in this country, and is to be furnished guttnitously to every vary in the State. It is supposed that 400,000 persons can be noned outside the state who will substitute for it at $12 a year, and as income of over eight millions of dodates is expected from intermediate or it at $12 a year, and as income of over eight millions and millions, and out this basis the enterprise is expected to yild a tert recome of use of ya million and thall to the State. This is cretably a try imposing programme thus always here from making in the said ways here from make the result in a classification of paper than in action of stability howespapers on paper than in action examines the same times will light GRAINING, PAPER HANGING, GLAZING, in State. Gifes of "Put him down" were heard, to which Mr. Kelley replied, "I tell you that you cannot put me down; the Fifteenth Infantry are at my back, and if they cannot keep the peace in Mobile the United States army can."

The tumult suddenly broke out at this point by a sudden rush toward the platform. About a hundred people were on the platform, inchading many eminent citizens, reporters of the press, etc. This rush seemed to be the signal for the welce to commence. The Chief of Po-lice attempted to arrest a ringleader on the borders of the growd, and he drew a pictoi on him. The cry of fire was then mised at the cor-ner of Royal street, and instantly a perfect hisilade of pistols was opened on the crowd who occupied the platform. A colored man was here shot in the head and full.

Some friends dragged Judge Kelley from out the range of fire, and succeeded in getting him away unharmed. The Gettysburg Asylum.

The "Gottysburg Asylum for Invalld Soldiers," of which General Meade was elected President, was designed as an exceedingly worthy project; but it appears there was a faint informality in the tion. The Board of Supervisors were omposed of a minority of the corporators usined in the act of incorporation passed by the Pennsylvania Legislature, and Attorney General Brewster, who was appealed to by Gen. Meade for an official opinion on the subject, has pub lished a letter in which he declares the proceed-leg without sanction of law. The Board of Suervisors have accordingly withdrawn their adertlsement from the press, and the enterprise s wietnally suspended.

write to us as follows: "The law was passed by a musnimous vote of the Leg-islature, and signed by the Governor. Every one approves of it, as it is the only way an institution can be built. The Attorney General, from ome cause known to himself, says he will contest the legality of the act. We are prepared to meet it and will be sustained. * * * * Onc thing is certain, the whole thing is fair and honorable, and is no bogus gift enterprise."

A cotemporary suggests that the next Legislaare may be disposed to revoke the authority of interpolate an exposition. Either of these al-ternatives would doubtless be resisted in the Courts ; the former on the ground that corporate canchises cannot be rescinded, unless misused established principle that it does not matter what legislative body intended by a particular suactment, as the meaning must be determined solely by the words employed.

But it is presumable the Attorney General will fulfill his pledge, and bring the association into Court, leaving the Supreme Judges to decide whether or not lottery powers have been granted t so as to stand.

Our Rassian Purchase.

According to the Washington corresponden of the Tribune, which is very hostile to the Russian American bargain, Secretary Seward and the Russian Government are quarreling over the ex-penses incurred in the sending of cable telegrams concerning that treaty. Before the treaty was efected, telegrams on the subject, it is said, passed between Seward and the Czar to the amount of everal thousand dollars. Those sent by Seward were prepaid here by our Government, but those from the Czar were paid for by the Land Tele-graph Company, when received from the Cable Company. This Land Telegraph Company has resented hills to the United States Government or the amount paid for sald dispatches from the Czar, and they have been refused payment .-Seward," eays the Tribune writer, " thinks the Czar should pay for bis own telegrams in the same meaner that he (Seward) paid for those sent by the United States Government. The Czur thinks differently, and says the United States must pay for all, as the understanding was that our Government was to pay $7,250,000 in gold for Walcussia, together with all expenses incurred in the purchase of the same. Seward would pay gladly all the Czar asks, for the sake of peace to our distressed country, but his conand he is at less to obtain the money. Settling the question will be a part of Senator Doolittle's mission to Russia. Robert J. Walker is authoriv for the statement that during Polk's Adminis ration Walrussiv was offered the United States Government for the mere payment of the Go enment incumbrances on the Territory." But o acquire shive territory on the South than this er lands and deheries on the North, the fact is no sign that one late purchase was not a profitable one. We believe that it was, whoever has be credit for it.

RECENT instances of caulus madness in various arts of the country, which have resulted in the unerative accessity of wiping out the race of vorthless cars which are allowed to run in every community. The last report of the Agricultural Eurean at Washington furnishes some statistics which ought to arouse the propie or the authorities if not the people, in a purpose to destroy all ties if not the people, to a purpose to destroy an warthless dogs.

"Few are aware," says the report, "of the losses inflicted upon the productive industry of the country by these pests. Every local attempt to securian these domages reveals astonating facts. Returns have been received in this division of the department of agriculture within a few weeks from 539 counties, in every State in the Union except the Pacific States, showing an aggregated estimate of 139,000 sheep killed by dogs in about one-fount to it he whole number of counties. On this basis the total number killed would be more than half a million yearly. Then the number highred, assuming as a basis rd would be more than half a milliou yourly. Then the number injured, assuming as a basis the proportion reported from actual account in sortes of years in Oulo, would be more than three hundred thousand sheep killed or muthated possibly, and a two per cent tax levied upon the total investment in sheep, a loss equal to one third of the gross income from six per cent stocks."

For 1866 alone the loss to the United States from the killing and malming of sheep by dogs is estimated at $2,600,000. "The cost of keeping logs," continues the Report, " most of inem ut terly worthless, when calculated for the whole country, assumes startling proportions. estimate made in the Report of 1855, of $10 per cannot made in the Report of 1855, of $10 per cannot per meal, cannot cannot be than one cent per meal, cannot then the liest tamilies of the town. Rev. dow of the brine is believed by many that they will average one to cach ramily or seven millions to the United "We States. In cities and towns that average would and is a public benefictor wherever established and assemblage of curs of low degree might be found in the ownership of large families. Pos sibly seven militons may be too large. Ohlo, that the arrivals during the season at Buffalo with half a million fundies, is supposed by many to have half a million dogs, although little mor than one-third of that number are found on the A-sessors' books. It may be assumed, in view I all the data obtained, as a low estimate, tha there are five millions of dogs in the United States, and that their aubsistence involves on expenditure of fifty millions of dollars.

A CORRESPONDENT of the New York Times, who app as to speak from close observation, unters into the discussion as to the extent of the corruption in the Legislature at Albany, and pronounces judgment in terms extremely unfavorable to that hody. He tells among other stories the following, to illustrate the entire loss of all sense of shame by the sellers of votes !

sense of shame by the sellers of votes:

On one occasion two of the rainond interests came into open competition on the Assembly floor on a notion to prefer one of them. A most extraordinary scene maned, a volent commotion was manifested, members rashed wildly about the chamber, the rival quands of lobbymen occupied the rear benches, and were constantly and implify sending communications to the members, votes were cindlenged continually as these measages wern received, and the party which was prefity well known to have the longest purse earlied like day. It was a standing joke about the budle that afternoon, "that there was no auction on the life that morning."

ditors Morning Herald:
GENTLEMEN: Wothe undersigned wish briefly to answer the anonymous scarfility written for publication, as we are credibly informed, by his Majesty, George M. Mowbray, Esq., who had not courage or manhood enough to piace said sour-rility over his own signature, and thus by his cowardice leave the public in the dark to draw such conclusions and form such opinions as to the acts and doings of the city officials as they might from the ungentlementy and unwarrant-able insudees that appears in the said on-onymous scurility. The fects connected with the transaction (so maliciously misrepresented by his Majesty) are simply these: At the fire on Sunday last, our worthy policemen were endeavor-ing to procure aid and and attaces from the lookcrs-on and bystanders that the tired-and worn out fremen might be relieved for a short time from their exceedingly hard and tedious task, and that our worthy policeman, John Doherty asked and requested one Leonard Doid to go and assist at the brakes of the engine; to which request Dodd refused to grant, and contrary to the ordinance, at the same time made use of most obsecte and lesuiting language to Mr. Doherty, and violently seized him and shored him with such force that he (Doherty) fell to the ground, at which time Policeman Rouse his duty and enforcing the orders previously given him by the Chief of Police and the Fire Department. The above statement is vouched for by Mesers, Bevau, Custar, Goodwin, et. al. The said (injured) Dodd was then solicited to go before his majesty, Esquire Mowbray and make a complaint against Mr. Doherty; and after said Dodd and ble co-evil workers had bunted the town over in search of some lawyer able to find any attorney who would stoop to so low and contemptible a thing us to prosecute an officer for simply discharging his duty, they then repaired to his majesty's office, where the omplaint was taken and notice sent to John Doherty of the same. The City Attorney was at this stage of the proceedings, for the first time notified by his Honor, the Mayor of the city of Titusville, that John Poherty was under arrest, and the City Attorney, accompanied by the prisoner and the Mayor, immediately obeyed the command, and straightway went to the office of Brond street, at an expense to the chyof not may be made they there relieved his royal more than $200. highness of the manifest desire that he seemed to

Mr. Dohetty then complained before the Mayor that said Dould had committed an assault and battery upon his person; that said Dould was also guilly of a violation of a city ordnance, and warmitte of arrest was issued to M. Tur Fenian triels in Dublin have brought ome interesting facts as to the magnitude of the intended operations in Ireland. men numbered from 14,000 to 18,000, and the arms of all sorts among them, numbered but 3,000! Probably the rules possessed by the entire force did not number 500. In Cork the 1,500 wenpuns to 20,000 men! And of thes 500, the vast majority were spikes. Surely, after this, there is no need to ask why the Fenin rising failed, or why the insurrectionary partle were unable to stand their ground against the police and the soldlers. The English authorities were perfectly informed as to the intentions of the Fenians, through traitors who were at the same time trusted officers in the Fenian caus and drawing pay as such

Take a common tembler, or a fruit can, fill it nearly full of soit water. Then tie a bit of coarse loce, or cheese sacking over it, and press down into the water; sovered, down with a layer, of peas. In a few days they will sprout, the fittle illreadlike roots going down through the lace into the water, and the vines can be trained up to trince, or, what is profiter, a frame may be made for the purpose. The tumbler, or far, should be set in a window where the sun shines. It regulates no care, and you will have a deliese, pretty vine to rost your weary eyes upon.

It on can make another pretty thing with as ittle trouble! Take in some and fill it with fresh, green moss. Place in the centre a pine come, having first wet it thoroughly. Then sprinkle, it thoroughly with grass seed. Col. H. A. J. Ruderkers—Dieur Sir Yours of the 11th Instant, asking for information as to the results from the explosion of the Roberts Torpedo in various wells on this farm, be at head, and we take great observed in maning the following statement, based upon our own observation and upon information obtained from authors persons owning interests in the wells mentioned below rise. The Tarr Homestend Company involved and Torpedoes exploded to the Durine and Kingsbary well of these two wells one had been Law in and two older pumping nearly 139 barrels, taken together, but they had decreased until both were yielding intakone 8 but rels per day. After the explosion of the Corputo, both consenses to row and pulled decreased the product of the Corputo, both the consense of the Corputone well. This will pumped at the highest point, should be barrels per day, described by the consense of the Corputone well. This will pumped at the highest point, should be barrels per day decreased to all on the pumped as the world by the commenced in flow, and 'le now flowing from 186 to 200 barrels per day. Thirt.
